Christmas Building Spree....

Improvements Mount

Downtown Sites Being Redone

Remodeling work continues during Christmas at several sites in downtown Cameron while several other projects are begun or completed.

Workers are installing roofing supports in the Hajovsky Bldg. in the 200 block South Houston, a 90-foot structure being completely rebuilt on the site of two narrower buildings. Schigut's Dept. store is planning to move into its new location next door sometime after January 1.

Plans also are underway for improvements at New Cameron Pharmacy, next door to the new Schigut location.

BANK PROJECT

In the L. North Houston block, workers are sanding exterior stone finishes of the First National Bank, preparatory to sealing finishes in the exterior columns and stone work of the bank.

Bank President Lester Williams said interior work on existing marble flooring and other permanent interior decor also was planned.

And workmen have been painting the Williams building opposite the Cameron Post Office this week. The two-story structure, containing two business buildings, is being completely painted with special brick paint.

Next door to the ASOS Bldg., the building formerly housing Zorisky TV, now moved, is being reworked by new owner Henry Coleman, Cameron businessman. No plans for occupancy had yet been announced.

Interior work on the Duncan Implement Co. plant on North US 77 is underway, though holidays will slow completion, one workman said.

Offices at The Cameron Herald, 103 E. First St., have been redecorated after additional space was built earlier in the year.

Cameron Independent School District will begin remodeling on the building at Central and First, bought on a lease-purchase plan two weeks ago. The commodity food office has been relocated in the Gehmert Bldg. for the time being.

School board officials noted that the lease-purchase plan for the former Stedman Tractor Bldg. includes consideration of future arrangements if the downtown block program is developed by the community.

Other recent downtown improvement was the addition of a large time-temperature clock at Citizens National Bank.

LIBRARY SLOWED

Construction on the new Cameron Public Library has been slowed by recent rains. Columns on one side of the structure have been raised. And brick and masonry materials have arrived prior to completion of the column wall system.

Library decorating committee members are completing selection of materials for the new $50,000 structure.

City officials reported that Washington approval is all that is now needed for work on the enlarged Cameron Municipal Airport. Federal approval assures the city's receiving funds from state and federal sources to expand the present facilities.

It all meant a better-looking Cameron this Christmas.

No Wrecks Now, But Watch Yule, Police Advise

City police and State Highway Patrol authorities reported a quiet pre-Christmas driving public, but cautioned drivers "to take it easy" during the next few holidays.

Police Chief Elvin Hoskins reported only one minor scrape causing $50 in damage in an otherwise wreckless seven previous days.

Highway patrolmen reported no accidents on pre-Christmas highways, but warned of caution in the heavier holiday traffic that will be going through Cameron and other Milam communities.

YHS Interact

Elects Officers

The Interact Club of Yoe High School has elected new officers and directors, spokesmen for the sponsoring Cameron Rotary Club have announced.

New officers are: president, Eugene Wallace; vice president, Mack McKinney; and secretary, Jack McKinney. Directors are: Ralph Duffy, Don Mitchell and Bob Schiller.

Announcement of the Interact Club's new leaders was made by George Kirk and Bob Ellett, Rotarians working with the high school group.

Officers and members of the 20-member organization will meet with the Cameron Rotary Club in the near future.

Funeral Rites Held Sunday For F. Davis

Frank J. Davis, formerly of Cameron, died at his home in Bastrop December 18. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Marek-Burns Funeral home, Cameron, with Rev. Gerald Dickerson officiating. Burial was in Bell Plains Cemetery.

Davis was born June 15, 1884, and was a retired farmer.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Julia M. Davis of Bastrop; three sons, Julius Davis of Odessa, Oscar Davis of Temple and Alvin Davis of Rockdale; two daughters, Mrs. Lillie Mae Corbin of Belton and Mrs. Myrtle Wusterhausen of Bastrop; one brother, Will Davis of El Campo; 18 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Herman Wusterhausen, Bobby Davis, Charles Davis, Milton Bowen, Delbert Davis, Dudley Sheffield.

ONLY TWO SHOPPING DAYS 'TIL CHRISTMAS

JAYCEES Charles Chandler, Charles Moraw, Wallace Small and Tommy Chamberlain show a few of the toys to be distributed to about 70 families this afternoon thanks to the Cameron Junior Chamber of Commerce Toys for Tots project. Jaycees said over 200

Cameron children will be remembered this Christmas because of the cooperation of Junior Chamber members, city merchants and a number of Cameron college students who volunteered their time to repair used toys.

Milam Schools Draw $96,967

Milam County Dependent Schools and Milam, Gause and Thornedale Independent Schools have received approval this month for $96,967.80 in federal grants under the Title I program.

H. D. Maxwell, county school superintendent, said Gause had joined with the three dependent schools, Maysfield, Buckholts and Branchville, in applying for Title I funds.

The group, called Milam County Cooperative Project, received approval for $37,399.06 for reading programs and social work.

Maxwell said Buckholts would receive $19,529.45, Gause $9,652.69, Branchville $8,678 and Maysfield $8,324.

THREE ADDED

Buckholts will add a reading teacher, teacher's aid and combination librarian and social worker. Maysfield and Branchville will each hire a teacher's aid and a social worker. Max McClaren, former Cameron teacher, will coordinate the social work program for the two schools.

The Gause school will hire two reading teachers and a social worker.

Maxwell said the program was approved for a three year period. Approval for $35,000 in Title I Federal monies was received for Milam schools and $915 under Title II for the school library.

City Churches Set Christmas Services

Christmas Eve services will be held at All Saints Episcopal Church and St. Monica's Catholic Church in Cameron Friday night.

All Saints Episcopal Church service will be 9 p.m. Friday, Air Force Chaplain (Capt.) Ed Flinn will celebrate Holy Communion and the Rev. David Erskine will deliver the Christmas Eve sermon.

The children of St. Anthony School will sing midnight mass at St. Monica Catholic Church on Christmas Eve. The children will be under the direction of Mrs. Walter Anderle.

The Rev. John Geiser said there would also be services at 6, 8 and 10 a.m. on Christmas Day at St. Monica's Church.

Col. Robert J. Jones, USAF Commander in Nha Trang presents Airman's Medal for heroism to Chaplain (Captain) James E. Flinn at Nha Trang headquarters.

ters. Capt. Flinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Flinn, Cameron, returned to the United States this week after serving for one year in Viet Nam.

Herald To Print Viet War Stories By R-C's Fowler

By special permission, The Cameron Herald will be publishing periodic reports by noted correspondent Wick Fowler, representing the Denton Record-Chronicle in Vietnam.

Fowler, a veteran war correspondent for the Dallas Morning News in both the Pacific and European Theatres, is the only correspondent for a Texas daily newspaper covering the Vietnam conflict.

As Record-Chronicle executive editor Bill Rives wrote November 23, prior to Fowler's departure: "The Record-Chronicle will be the only newspaper in Texas—as well as the smallest in the nation—to have a reporter covering the Vietnamese conflict on a continuing basis."

The Herald may be the only Texas weekly granted permission to publish some of the Record-Chronicle's localized Vietnam coverage.

Fowler's periodic reports in The Herald will continue material on service personnel from Milam area towns, such as Capt. Flinn, Air Force chaplain from Cameron, who has received the Air Medal for heroism. (See related story).

Fowler has authored a daily humorous feature, "The World's Fare" for Record-Chronicle. During his Vietnam tour, the feature will be suspended in the North Texas daily, Rives reported.

Fowler is a native of Big Sandy and moved to Austin some years later. He has held positions with the Austin American - Statesman, the Midland Reporter-Telegram, Dallas Times Herald and the Dallas News.

In his 50's, Fowler during World War II covered American action in Italy, including the Anzio Beachhead. He and three other correspondents, including the late, great correspondent Ernie Pyle, were wounded during a bombing. Fowler received the Purple Heart as well as ribbons for service in the Mediterranean, European and Pacific Theatres.

Mrs. Bob McCown, 59, died at Ennis Tuesday morning. Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Baylor Baptist Church, Ennis, and graveside services were at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Oak Hill Cemetery with Rev. Eugene Strickland officiating.

A former Cameron resident, Mrs. McCown was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Harry Tag of Cameron.

Surviving are her husband Bob McCown of Ennis; one son, Lee S. McCown; one daughter, Mrs. Bobby Jean Smith of Palmer; one sister, Mrs. S. A. Dunn of Temple; two grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Melvin Ford, Franklin Dusk, Ray Lester, Jimmy Angel, Drayton McLane and Carl Black.

MADDOX FIRST...

Charlie "Bubba" Maddox of Cameron has filed for the office of county treasurer for the May, 1966 Democratic Primary; according to Max McClaren, Milam Democratic chairman.

Maddox is the first candidate to file for a place on the primary ballot.

The office is now held by Mrs. Ida Johns, who will not seek re-election, McClaren said.

Other county-wide offices up for re-election in 1966 are: district clerk, now held by Grady Allen; county judge, now Don G. Humble; county clerk, now Wayne B. Wieser; county superintendent, now H. D. Maxwell; and county surveyor, now J. B. Earle.

On a district basis, both the new

Chaplain's Valor Earns Air Medal

Air Force Chaplain (Captain) James E. Flinn risked his life to save the life of a distraught American serviceman in Viet Nam last spring and this month was awarded the Airman's Medal for his action.

The commendation for heroism was presented in recent ceremonies at Nha Trang headquarters by Col. Robert J. Jones, USAF Base Commander.

The Air Force Chaplain, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Flinn, Cameron, was notified that a US serviceman had barricaded himself in his room and was armed with an M-16 rifle and a hand grenade.

Disregarding his own safety, he went into the compound. After a lengthy discussion, during which time he was held at gun point, Capt. Flinn persuaded the soldier to relinquish his weapons and submit to medical treatment.

The citation accompanying the Airman's Medal said in part: "By his courageous action and humanitarian regard for his fellowman, Chaplain Flinn has reflected great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force."

Merry Christmas

The Herald foregoes much of its usual format at Christmastime to bring a measure of the Yuletide to our readers.

That measure is spelled out in the simplicity of hundreds of letters to Santa from the children of Milam County.

These letters tell of a vital aspect of Christmas: receiving a gift. While emphasis is on giving, it takes a recipient to acknowledge the gift. This is fundamental in Christmas symbolism.

Who could better receive a gift than a child? Was it not the birth of a Child some 1965 years ago that also brought Christmas into the world?

Without children, there is no Christmas. With them, letters to Santa contain an element important to us all, the element of belief. In a world of cynicism, faith even in an old gentleman who brings toys to children is a remarkable thing.

Doubt goes a long way. Just a little faith goes further. Whether in Santa Claus, his reindeer or a deeper meaning of the Yuletide, belief gives value when the tinsel is gone.

We extend sincere hope that Herald readers everywhere will enjoy a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Sage Tears Off Three Pages On Calendar And Discovers Christmas Is Almost Here

Dear editor:

I picked up a copy of a newspaper which had blown against the side of my house the other day, at first I thought it was a loose board, and could tell by how heavy it was that Christmas was bound to be getting close, so I went inside and got down my calendar and tore off September, October and November, which I had been planning on doing anyway for some time now, and sure enough it's here.

Some people say Christmas gets here too soon the older they get, but I don't think it gets here any sooner than Christmas Eve, or Thanksgiving or New Year's or August or the opening of Congress or the discovery of a new world crisis.

Speaking of a world crisis, some people have the notion they ought to feel guilty about enjoying Christmas when the world is fraught with danger and is maybe on the brink of something worse, but if you're waiting till everything is just right in the world before enjoying Christmas or any other day, you'll never get to it.

There never was a time when the world wasn't on the brink of something or other, and the way it looks from this Johnson grass farm, we've got a long way to go before it isn't. Therefore, as far as I can tell, things are normal, which is to say average, and everybody might as well go ahead and enjoy Christmas, if their credit holds out. I've long contended that if the government was on its toes it'd allow a man to figure up what he spent on Christmas presents for others and what the gifts he got from others came to, and if it didn't balance, if he went in the hole, the government would make up the difference, but I've never been able to get a Congressman to introduce the bill, and I have about given up on it, at least until they get the shrubbery planted around the junk yards.

Here's hoping everybody connected with The Herald has a Merry Christmas. Personally, I intend to.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Let's Follow The Star

Let's follow the star to the Manger
And gaze at the Holy Christ Child
So gentle - so lovely - so lowly -
So pure - so spotless - so mild.
And as we kneel at the Manger
Thanking God for His wonderful gift
Forgetting our doubts and our worries
May His great love our heavy hearts lift.
Let's follow the star to the Manger
Let its light be our beacon - our guide
May its sweetness - its mildness - its beauty
Warm our hearts, and there ever abide.
Let's follow the star to the Manger
Its light will not fail us or cease
But will lead us thru gathering darkness
Bringing good will among men - on earth Peace.

GREETINGS!

State Brucellosis Program Expands

By Vern Sanford

and 342,000-acre-feet from two-

AUSTIN
Expansion of the brucellosis eradication program has touched almost every section of the state, as control moves from established West Texas to the Valley and Deep East Texas.

Area testing toward initial certification is underway in Atascosa, Brooks, Coryell, Falls, Hamilton, Hood, Jack, Limestone, McLennan, Milam and Roberts Counties. Armstrong, Bosque, Crane, Duval, Erath, Potter and Ward Counties have qualified for certification or re-certification.

Twenty-one more counties petitioning for Brucellosis programs are Angelina, Cherokee, Hardin, Houston, Jasper, Jim Hogg, Nacogdoches, Newton, Orange, Panola, Polk, Sabine, San Augustine, San Jacinto, Shelby, Trinity, Tyler, Wichita and Zapata Counties.

Overlapping bills in the Legislature will balk Texas National Guard Armory Board plans to dispose of unneeded armories "encumbered by debt" at Ranger, Carrizo Springs and Santa Anna, according to interpretation of an opinion by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

Another seven or eight armories are expected to become surplus after the Guard-Reserve merger —without authority to dispose of them.

In other opinions Carr held: —Wife of Kendall County sheriff cannot be employed to prepare meals for prisoners in county jail.

—Hale County justice of peace, precinct 1, place 2, does not come into existence until commissioners court declares precinct contains a city of 3,000.

—Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation can sell surplus land at Abilene State School.

—State Comptroller has authority to set up special accounts for gifts and bequests to Water Rights Commission.

POVERTY PROGRAMS

Gov. John Connally announced approval of Community Action Program grants in Kingsville ($38,234) Comal and Blanco Counties ($18,649) and Atascosa, Karnes and Wilson Counties ($16,200).

A $225,710 Neighborhood Youth Corps grant to train 210 youngsters in Falfurrias also received the governor's authorization.

CUERO PROJECT REPORT OK

Sen. John G. Tower's Austin office advises that a proposed Bureau of Reclamation Feasibility Report on the $117,300,000 multi-purpose Cuero Project in the Guadalupe River Basin of DeWitt and Gonzales Counties has been approved.

Report is being transferred to the state of Texas and to interested federal agencies for review before it goes to the President and Congress.

Annual yield of water from the proposed reservoir will be 229,000-acre-feet for stage 1 development.

stage ultimate development.

OIL EXPLORATION URGED

Texas now is encouraging oil exploration in the Gulf of Mexico on both state and federal leases by adopting a special offshore allowable yardstick giving offshore wells bonus production allowances.

New Texas schedule, effective Jan. 1, matches the special offshore allowable Louisiana has been granting, at least in general.

This was a double Christmas bonus for companies operating offshore, since the Texas Railroad Commission announced its decision as it increased regular statewide production for January to 32.6 per cent of capability, a rise of 69,387 barrels in calendar day allowances.

Bonus production allowances will apply not only to state-owned tracts in the Gulf of Mexico, extending out 10.5 miles, but also to federally-owned lands beyond that point to the Continental Shelf.

State Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who administers the offshore leases owned by the Texas Permanent School Fund, called the announcement "a Christmas gift for the Texas schools."

HOSPITAL PROGRAMS

State Board of Health has allocated, tentatively, to various health facilities in Texas, more than $16,600,000 in federal Hill-Burton hospital construction, modernization and equipment grants.

Final allotment is subject to federal agency approval.

TEXAS 2020

More than 30 million people are expected to live in Texas by 2020, and about 2-3 of them will be living in 15 of the more urbanized counties.

According to a Texas Water

Development Board report, seven of the 15 will have a population exceeding a million. Eight counties will have populations ranging from 400,000 to 1,000,000.

This study, directly related to the State Water Plan, is due public presentation in the late spring of 1966. It will be the basis for water requirement projections to 2020.

Counties in the "over-a-million" category will include Harris, Dallas, Tarrant, Bexar, Travis, Nueces and El Paso in that order.

Dominant other counties will be Jefferson, McLennan, Galveston, Brazoria, Smith, Lubbock, Hidalgo and Gregg.

These 15 counties are expected to comprise 2-3 of the population. In 1960, the 15 contained half of the total state population.

State Water Plan will project water requirements for the expected population growth in each river and coastal basin.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Will of Your Own

She was a well-to-do spinster, aging and lonely. He was young and affable, ready and willing to give her the companionship she craved. In the declining years of her life, the two developed a close friendship.

Sure enough, when the woman died she left most of her money to him. Promptly her relatives challenged the validity of the will, charging that it was the result of "undue influence."

But the court held the will valid. The judge pointed out that the young man's "influence" consisted of nothing more than simple kindness. Furthermore, the woman had been vigorous and alert to the end, perfectly capable of making her own decisions.

There is nothing necessarily wrong with influence itself, in the making of a will. As one court put it:

"Everyone who is conscious of family and social duties is constrained by the obligations which he thus recognizes. These obligations affect constantly his thinking and his conduct. They assert themselves when he writes his will. Only a hermit or a hobo may be said to possess a free volition."

What the law does object to is influence so strong that it overwhelms the person's independent judgment.

Thus, a court invalidated a will made by a helpless cripple, under threats by his son and daughter-in-law to abandon him. Even though the document was labeled "WILL," it was not truly his will at all but theirs.

The suspicion of undue influence may arise from various telltale signs, such as a bequest that seems contrary to human nature.

For instance, it was held an indication of undue influence by a man's second wife that he left far more money to her children than to his. Or, in another case, that a father left almost nothing to his invalid son and almost everything to his healthy daughter.

Nevertheless, while eccentricity in a will may justify suspicion, it is seldom enough by itself to prove undue influence. A man has the right to make an eccentric will if he so chooses. The law merely wants to be sure that he freely did so choose.

The "Messiah" oratorio, a Christmas tradition, was composed by George Friderick Handel in only 25 days, according to World Book Encyclopedia. It was first performed in 1742 in Dublin. A year later King George II set the custom of standing during the oratorio's "Hallelujah Chorus."

Christmas Caroling Dates To Early Church Celebrations

Christmas caroling is almost as old as Christmas itself—though not in the form we know it.

An early historian wrote that in the Second Century the bishop of Rome urged his people to sing "in celebration of our Lord." Christmas hymns go back to the Fifth Century, when most of them were written in Latin.

St. Francis of Assisi is regarded as the father of caroling as we know it, according to World Book Encyclopedia. In 1223, St. Francis placed a creche (miniature Nativity scene), in a hermitage in Greccio, Italy.

After this many churches began displaying a Nativity scene at Christmas, and soon the people began acting out the Christmas story. The actors composed carols to sing with their Nativity plays and after the plays they would stroll down the street, singing. In that way, street caroling was born.

Joseph Mohr, a pastor in Oberndorf, Austria, composed "Stille Nacht," or "Silent Night," on Christmas Eve, 1818. Franz Gruber, the local schoolmaster and organist, composed the music the same day, and the hymn was sung for the first time at Midnight Mass that night.

"Messiah." "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night," written in 1703 by Nahum Tate, was set to music taken from "Siroe," an opera by Handel.

No one knows who wrote "The First Noel." It first appeared in print in 1833 in a book called "Christmas Carols Ancient and Modern," and is believed to be very old.

The author of "God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen," also is unknown, but he lived before Shakespeare.

So if you should go caroling this Christmas season, think of other carolers of years gone by, of the people of Charles Dickens' time in their beaver hats and cutaway coats, of English villagers in hose and jerkin, of good St. Francis, and of the priests of the time of the Christian Roman Empire who, before caroling as we know it existed, sang "in celebration of our Lord."

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Do You Show Your Good Manners By Writing?

By Jane Sherrod Singer

One of the outstanding signs of politeness is shown in letter-writing, notes of thank-you and thoughtful messages. Answer YES or NO.

- | | YES | NO |
|---|-----|-----|
| 1. Should young people be expected to write letters? | () | () |
| 2. Is lined paper proper for letters of appreciation and invitations? | () | () |
| 3. Is the use of pencils correct for correspondence? | () | () |
| 4. Should you end all letters, invitations, etc. with an endearing phrase as "Love" and your name? | () | () |
| 5. If someone gives you a present or invites you to a party and you thank them at the time, should you still write a thank-you note? | () | () |
| 6. When writing a thank-you note for a gift, should you mention specifically what the present is? | () | () |
| 7. Is it correct to write thank you letters to your teachers, your boss, members of the clergy, the postman, the librarian and other people who help you? | () | () |
| 8. Do you remember special days such as birthdays, your parents' anniversaries, the birth of a new baby, etc. with a card or note to your friends? | () | () |
| 9. Before you send a letter, are you sure the spelling and punctuation are correct? | () | () |

ANSWERS:
1. YES: Even children in the first grade can write Thank You... and should.
2. NO: Many stationery pads have lined paper you can put under the regular piece. BUT, remember, any thank you letter is better than none.
3. NO: Properly, correspondence should be done with pen, however, it is better to write with pencil than not to write at all.
4. NO: The word "love" should only be used for relatives, your parents and the few close friends whom you really do love. For the rest, it is better to sign, "Your friend" and your name.
5. YES: While it is not absolutely necessary, a personal note is greatly appreciated.
6. YES: If you merely say, "Thank you for the present" it sounds as if you have forgotten what it is.
7. YES: There are so many people who help us and whom we take for granted, that one of the very nicest things is occasionally take the time to express your appreciation with a card, note or letter.
8. YES: You know how much YOU like to be remembered; so be as kind to your friends.
9. YES: There are inexpensive paperback dictionaries which you should have as a good friend if you do not have a more expensive one. If you still have doubts, ask someone to help you. Letter writing is a sign of good manners... correct form is a sign of good education and a bright mind.

Sweeney Wins State Crown

Thirty degree weather, a muddy field, a strong wind and an open date which came unexpectedly spelled bad luck for the O. J. Thomas Bulldogs last Saturday night at Yoe Field. When the final whistle sounded, the Bulldogs lost the State Class A Negro crown to a good team that had played in bad weather before and knew how to handle it. The final score was O. J. Thomas 6 and Sweeney Wildcats 24.

The Wildcats scoring came on three good runs and a long pass. Louis Helm scored the first Sweeney touchdown on a 2 yard run. The extra point failed. The Bulldogs had the ball at the ten yard line with a first down but failed to make it. Kenneth Groves scored for the Wildcats halfway through the second period on a fine run. Again the PAT failed and the Wildcats led at halftime 12-0.

The Bulldogs offense came back in the third period and moved the ball well but could not score until late in the period when Fred Kelly passed to Willie Holloway on a 35 yard pass. Third TD for the Wildcats came early in the third quarter when a Kelly pass went astray, was intercepted and run back 70 yards for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, the Sweeney Wildcats scored again with a pass from QB Samuel Thomas to Jessie Bess. The PAT failed and the Wildcats won the State crown 24-6.

Standouts for the O. J. Thomas Bulldogs were Knight, Holloway and Kelly on offense and Rose, Pool, Canady, Rosewood and Johnnie Holloway. The Bulldogs run a pro type offense and use a stunting defense and play pass and run on equal basis.

Bring dinner to a light and lovely finale with this Borden recipe:

Almond Chiffon Tarts
(Makes one 9-inch pie OR 6 tarts)
1-1/2 cups (about 24 cookies) chocolate cookie crumbs
1/2 cup PLUS 3 tablespoons sugar
1/3 cup butter OR new Danish margarine, melted
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatin
2 cups PLUS 1-1/2 tablespoons water
1 cup Starlac Instant Nonfat Dry Milk
1/8 to 1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1/4 cup finely chopped toasted slivered almonds
In a small mixing bowl, combine cookie crumbs, 3 tablespoons sugar and butter or margarine; mix well. Line six 4-1/4 x 1-1/4-inch tart shells with aluminum foil. Gently press mixture evenly on bottom and sides of each. Bake in a moderate (375°F.) oven 8 minutes. Remove from oven; cool. Refrigerate 1 hour, or until well chilled. Combine gelatin and 1/4 cup water. Let gelatin soften 5 minutes. In a small saucepan, combine 2/3 cup nonfat dry milk, 1-1/2 cups water and remaining sugar. Cook over medium heat until bubbles form around edge of pan; stir constantly. Add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Add almond extract. Chill until mixture is consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Into a medium-size mixing bowl, pour remaining water. Sprinkle remaining milk over surface of water. With a rotary beater or electric mixer, beat 8 to 10 minutes, or until stiff peaks form. Gently fold into gelatin mixture. Stir in nuts. Chill until mixture mounds when dropped from a spoon. Spoon into cookie crusts. Refrigerate 2 hours, or until firm. Remove tarts; peel away foil. Garnish with whole almonds and additional toppings.

This Dessert Gets Raves

Refreshing Fruited Caramel Custard looks elegant, tastes great and is the delight of the hostess because it is a convenient make-ahead dessert. Bake the Caramel Custard a day early and keep it chilled. At serving time border the platter with canned sliced peaches, purple plums and pear halves. The baked custard is just sweet enough, and the fruit flavors just tart enough to compliment one another perfectly.
For a choice buffet serve glazed canned ham, butter browned canned sweet potatoes, a tossed vegetable salad and dessert.

|-------------------|------------------------------|
| 1 cup sugar | 2 teaspoons vanilla |
| 6 cups milk | 1 can (1 lb.) purple plums |
| 10 eggs | 1 can (1 lb.) sliced peaches |
| 2 1/2 cup sugar | 1 can (1 lb.) pear halves |
| 3/4 teaspoon salt | |
- Warm a 2 1/2 quart heatproof baking dish in the oven. Sprinkle the 1 cup sugar in a heavy 10-inch skillet. Put over high heat and melt, tilting the pan back and forth to keep sugar moving, until a light brown. Quickly pour into the baking dish; set aside. Scald milk. Beat eggs with the 2 1/2 cup sugar, salt and vanilla until blended. Stir into milk. Pour over the caramel. Set dish in a pan of hot water. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) about 1 1/2 hours, until an inserted knife blade comes out clean. Cool, then chill overnight. At serving time set dish in shallow pan of hot water for a few minutes. Run spatula around custard to loosen. Put serving plate upside-down over custard and invert. Surround with chilled drained fruits. Ten to twelve servings.

Cooks who customize take their cues from circumstances—cold weather for example, when they know appetites grow hearty. To meet and match such ardent appetites, the Borden Kitchen paired two great classics—mince meat and spareribs—in a novel sweet-sour dish, colorfully decked with watercress, lemon, and apple ring slices.

Sparerib-Mince Meat Bake
(Makes 6-8 servings)

2 tablespoons butter OR new Danish margarine	1 teaspoon dehydrated instant minced onions
1 (4-oz.) can Brandywine mushroom stems and pieces, drained and chopped	2 tablespoons dehydrated sweet pepper flakes
1-1/3 cups (one-half 28-oz. jar) None Such Ready-to-Use Mince Meat	2 tablespoons dehydrated celery flakes
2 cups toasted bread cubes	2 sides spareribs (about 2 lbs. each)
1/2 teaspoon salt	1 teaspoon salt
	1/4 teaspoon pepper
	1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate

Paprika

In heavy 9-inch skillet, melt butter or margarine over low heat. Add mushrooms; sauté lightly. Stir in mince meat, bread cubes, salt, minced onions, pepper flakes and celery flakes. Sprinkle spareribs with salt and pepper. Lay one side of spareribs on a rack in a shallow roasting pan, bone side down, spread with dressing. Place second side of spareribs over top, bone side down. Secure each end with skewers. Sprinkle ribs with monosodium glutamate and paprika. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven 2 hours, or until meat is brown and crisp. Remove from oven to heated platter; remove skewers.
